Tax related aspects of cash payments

The tax authorities may regard the capital withdrawal as circumvention if purchases were made within three years of any capital withdrawal. The tax authorities may consider all the 2nd Pillar pension arrangements of a person as a whole and generally do not recognise the deductibility of purchases made during this period. This may lead to a supplementary tax procedure. The insured is in any case responsible for the tax consequences of the capital withdrawal.

It is recommended that prior clarification be obtained from the relevant tax authority.

Data protection

All personal data will be processed in accordance with the current legislation:

For compulsory occupational benefits, the data protection regulations of LOB (Art. 85a ff. LOB) apply. The provisions of the FADP apply in addition. The FADP applies to purely supplementary occupational benefits (for information e.g. identity and contact details of responsible persons, processing purposes, etc. please see www.helvetia.ch/privacy).

By signing below, the insured person confirms that they wish to maintain benefit coverage in the form described above, and that in the case of payment in cash (other than marginal termination benefit), they are no longer subject to the obligatory occupational benefit scheme.

For single, divorced or widowed persons, a confirmation of marital status is mandatory for payment in cash.

Signature of the insured person

In the event of a cash payment, an original officially-certified signature of the spouse or registered partner, as the case may be, is mandatory. Certification must be carried out by a notary, the certification office of the municipality or state chancellery of the place of residence or Canton or an equivalent official body. A signature authenticity check by a Helvetia general or main agency is also acceptable. Signing must take place in the presence of the person certifying the signature. A signed passport or identity card must be produced.
